

EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION

Floyd County, Indiana
March 20, 2020

AUTHORITY

Whereas, Floyd County, Indiana has been and is immediately threatened by the corona virus, COVID-19 and;

Because of the potential severity of an outbreak, and because certain precautions need to be taken and isolation or other measures may become desirable, because of the potential disruptions to supply chains, and other issues;

Now, therefore, we, the Floyd County Board of Commissioners, declare that a state of emergency exists in the county and that we hereby invoke and declare those portions of the Indiana Code which are applicable to the conditions and have caused the issuance of this proclamation, to be in full force and effect in the county for the exercise of all necessary emergency authority for protection of the lives and property of the people of Floyd County and the restoration of local government with a minimum of interruption.

Reference is hereby made to all appropriate laws, statutes, ordinances and resolutions, and particularly to Section 10-14-3-29 of the Indiana Code.

All public offices and employees of Floyd County are hereby directed to exercise the utmost diligence in the discharge of duties required of them for the duration of the emergency and in execution of emergency laws, regulations, and directives -- state and local.

All citizens are called upon and directed to comply with necessary emergency measures, to cooperate with public officials and disaster services forces in executing emergency operations plans, and to obey and comply with the lawful directions of properly identified officers.

All operating forces will direct their communications and requests for assistance and operations directly to the Emergency Management Emergency Operations Center.

This emergency proclamation will remain in full force and renew every 7 days until rescinded.

In witness, whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this 20 th day of March, 2020 A.D.

Chairman, Floyd County
Commissioners

Floyd County Commissioner
